HOME DEPARTMENT

I request for two days privilege leave on the 21st and 22nd December 1950 on account of private work. My casual leave is exhausted and so I have requested for Privilege Leave.

I may also be permitted to draw the Duty allowance during the period of privilege leave, as the allowance will not be payable to any other Officer and as there will be no extra cost to Government. Such a concession was granted to Sri E. Devaraja Rao, when he went on Privilege leave as an Assistant Superintendent of Police (Vide Government letter No.H.A.6662/Pol. dated 17-10-1950).

7) Letter dated 17-10-50 is only about the admissibility of the Consolidated allowance sanctioned in G.O.Ms P. 15823-324/PSI 169-67-2 dated 28-3-49 to the ASPS in the cited Offs B'lore & Mysore Nil is not a similar ~~case~~ analogy with the present Case. The officer requests that he may be permitted to draw the duty allowance during the period of privilege leave. 'G'

8) Duty allowance ~~payable~~ according to the Art 15 of the M.S.R " is an allowance given to an officer in addition to pay or salary, in consideration of the specially arduous nature of his duties or of increased work".

9) Sri Venkatakrishna Rao is drawing a duty allowance of Rs 50/- P.M. as Executive Secy to Govt being a Civil Service Officer. He requests, the grant of only two days privilege leave on the 1st & 22nd Dec 50 & as during the period of privilege leave, he requests to permit him to draw the duty allowance attached to the post ~~of~~ of Under Secy to Govt ~~of India~~ ~~Home Secrs~~ ~~Officers~~ of this Commission if the grantee ~~that~~ it would set up a precedent and draw so many representations in future.

13) As governed by the articles, 176, 177, 179 and 180 of the F.S.R it has been stated how to draw the local allce, Horse allce, House Rent allce & Tentage during privilege leave in the circumstances explained. But it has not been stated clearly in the

M.S.R about the admissibility of the duty allowance during privilege leave or furlough. So in the absence of any definite article about the admissibility of duty allce during P.L. it may be implied that duty allce is admissible only if one is actually on duty.

A. 26/12.

14) Duty allce during Privilege leave seems to be clearly inadmissible, the fact that it is not payable to another officer or that there is no extra cost being not material to the admissibility of the claim.

15) J.D. may be consulted, if necessary.

26.12.50. 16) From the discussions in the Pol. file No. 349-50 (1-4), it may be seen that consolidated allowance is payable to an officer during privilege leave provided no acting arrangement entailing the payment of the allowance to the acting incumbent, is made during the period of privilege leave. During the absence of Sri Venkatakrishna Rao on privilege leave for two days, no acting or in-charge arrangement was made against the posts of Under Secy to Govt, Home Depn.

He may therefore be permitted to draw the D.A. allowance for these two days also.

19) The Officer was on privilege leave for two days. Payment of Duty Allowance to an officer on privilege leave is not admissible under the rules. The argument that no acting or in-charge arrangement was made during the absence of this officer and therefore the payment of Duty Allowance may be made on the ground that it entails no additional extra cost to Government is based on the hypothetical presumption that such an acting or in-charge arrangement could be made even for periods less than ten days, which is clearly not allowed under the rules. That is, no in-charge or acting arrangements can be thought of for periods less than ten days. Hence there is no granting of duty allowance for a short absence of two days.
